Physical Description

Average Body Type, 5'8 in height, light brown skin, blue eyes, black hair, messy hairstyle angled facial features. He is slim and quite fit. He has a pleasant smell and he speaks in a kind-hearted and soft voice

Personality

He is very playful, warm-hearted, and mostly happy when he is hanging out with his friends and teammates. He is kind and friendly to most people he encounters. However, when he is in combat, he is cold and callous to every enemy that gets in his way. He shows no sympathy or mercy to anyone that threatens or endangers his fellow comrades. In an operation by himself, he is apathetic to the plight of his enemies. Still, he is playful and caring towards his teammates all the time. He wants to make a better place for his sister, and he does this the only way he knows how; death. He is quite lazy but if something important needs to be done will do it nonetheless. He is not easily angered and he is normally cautious with decisions. He likes everybody, at least everybody except his enemies. He does favor people with a happy and carefree attitude.

History

Arthur Leichester was born in YE 18 Arthur had a pretty rough childhood. He was born in a very impoverished village with his younger sister Charlotte. He only lived with his mother and sister for most years of his early life, until a group of raiders sacked and pillaged his village. In the raid, his mother was killed in cold blood by one of the raiders and this caused something in him to snap. He grabbed a gun and with a blank empty face, he killed 13 raiders by himself without hesitation. After the battle, he and his sister decided to move to Dovia for a better life. They both had just enough money to make a living and so in an effort to give his sister the comfortable life she dreams of, he decided to join the military and send his money to her. He wasn't well educated in his childhood, but he is catching up by reading many books in his free time.
