Physical Description

Taller by Neko standards standing at the maxed out height for her body style of 5'11" Hinata has multi-colored hair with the left side of her head being green, the other half blue, the hair falls roughly shoulder length and usually seems a little disheveled like she had just taken a helmet off, though bottom bit of her hair bouncing with small curls. Her eyes match her hair, just opposite sides with her right eye being green, her left eye blue. She has normal white skin, and a seemingly permanent smirk on her face. Up her left arm are tattoos that seem to name all the squads she had been in with large "X"'s through each one. She has Cat ears with fur color matching whichever side of the hair they are on, and a tail colored blue.

Personality

Bold, abrasive, attacking, she always speaks her mind and speaks up when she feels like it. She tends to make fun of people for whatever, sometimes giving them condescending nicknames and trying to find buttons to push and annoy people. Her abrasive personality has landed her in trouble at times, yet somehow she seems reliable and dependable all at the same time. She tends to try and protect whoever she can, if only to have someone to poke fun at later.

History

Born in YE-35, Hinata was seen as gifted even among her combat bred sisters with a knack for all things combat. The larger body certainly helped as she was more or less fast tracked for officer candidacy coming out of basic training, yet it never surfaced for the woman. Her personality started to get the better of her, causing her to argue constantly, mouth off at times, and generally just be a pain in the ass. But her superiors couldn't argue with her results in combat. As a result she was shipped off to the 22nd legion around Nataria, where she served for a number of years. She had bad luck wherever she went as usually she would wind up the only survivor of her squad. She was shuffled around, and the constantly changing faces made it tougher and tougher to connect, driving her further into her terrible attitude. The only reason she has ever really been promoted is because of the fact that regardless of her attitude, she usually produced results even when she returned alone to extraction points. Eventually fed up with her, she was shipped out of her squad and legion, and instead sent to "Squad XIII"

Skills Learned

Fighting

Hinata received hand-to-hand combat training, followed up with a rigorous training program. She is skilled and experienced in combat both in Yamatai-like conditions and in zero-gravity, with and without weapons. Weapons she is trained in include energy pistols, knives, and power armor. She has spent her life on the battlefield, picking up tricks here and there on top of her already excelling in combat to begin with through her training. She tends to favor weaponry that has some sort of semi or fully automatic setting, but knows her way around long ranged weaponry as well.

Communication

Hinata is familiar with basic radio operation and procedures and can make transmissions to and receive transmissions from other characters through headsets, starships, power armor, and shuttles in both combat and non-combat conditions. She is fluent in English and Japanese. She can speak and write both correctly and efficiently and can write reports, fill forms, issue orders under fire, etc.

Technology Operations

Hinata is capable of operating any computer system that uses the Kessaku OS, found on all Star Army starships. She is proficient in entering and/or searching for information.

Mathematics

Hinata has received basic mathematics training, to including up to algebra and trigonometry.

Medical and Science

Being that she usually is in the field and Medics aren't always nearby, or alive, Hinata has picked up some first aid training and basic field medic skills, just to fill in should the need arise. Sadly the need has arisen many a time, and very few and far between has she actually been successful at keeping people up and alive.

Survival And Military

Being forced quite often to make planet falls and fight ground side, Hinata has found herself fighting more often than not in woods and forests, able to make her way to extraction points, and most importantly survive in the woods, Hinata has found herself enjoying the woods when she was forced to move and hide. She can also set up ambushes planet side and in space when given a chance after years of being on battlefields.
