On the other hand, when it comes to her work, she is very perfectionistic, outspoken and sometimes harsh. Her tolerance of nonsense in the workplace is notoriously short. She loves to excercise her mind and body, enjoying a good challenge when it arises. She has a tendency to overreact when excited, which can sometimes scare people away.

History

Created on Taiie in early YE 29 as a NH-29. After completing basic training and a slightly advanced, and abbreviated course load at Kyoto War College's extension on Taiie, Natsumi was set to enter the Star Army of Yamatai's Fifth Expeditionary Fleet.

Natsumi's plans were changed quickly however, when Taiie was destroyed. She ended up with hundreds of civilians packed into the decks of Pisces Station. She found herself locked between duty to the Star Army of Yamatai and her friends and family amongst the Taiie refugees, and got into several arguments with station officials about the treatment of the refugees.

She moved to Jiyuu and were she joined supporters of the Tange and the Independence Movement. She happily complied with orders she then downgraded to the Yamataian body type, considering it a symbol of her devotion to the newly made nation. Being a supporter of the Independence Movement she attended a public lecture given by Motoyoshi Kiyoko on the foundations of peacekeeping. The two quickly became friends and Kiyoko promised Natsumi a place aboard the The Akuro III once she enlisted..
