She's interested in seeing the Mining Guild grow and expand, as well as the New Dusk Conclave

History

Nicola emerged into existence 9 months ago, in one of the New Dusk Conclave's cloning tanks, where she became interested in the civilian workforce rather than the military, and thus she entered the emerged Mining Guild where she became an initiate. Her confidence and leadership qualities were evident when she told her boss Overseer Alara Botkid about possible safety issues and her ideas about how this issue can be rectified. Alara later put her in charge of a shift, to test her leadership skills, and they both were pleased with the results.

Nicola advanced to Overseer and thus was moved to a new mine, before the CEO decided to expand, some with the NDC to the Nephis system, where Nicola was placed in charge as Branch head.
