Physical Description

Araena stands at 6' even, the minus two inches out of average height seemingly taken up by a pair of wolf like ears. She's curvy like the Fenrir clones made before her, but however has a smaller cup at only a D compared to the others. But the hourglass figure is well retained, even a bit more so. A wolf like tail can be seen just above her rear, and is the same snow white as her hair. Finally, Araena has crimson eyes, framed by a soft yet smooth face of adorableness.

Personality

Energetic, happy, and optimistic in almost every way, Araena is a ray of sunshine where ever she goes. Having chosen to learn over choosing a simple, or remedial job, wants to gain the knowledge to do more with her life. With a side of her that is connected with her more canine features, seek to grow closer to others, and to be helpful to them as she can. Seeking the goodwill, and goodness in people, it's understatement to say she is highly sociable people person. Straying from violence like the more cruel origins of the Fenrir project was made in a much better setting, where peace and prosperity were a much more obtainable option.

History

In late YE 40, the need for more genetic variety among the clones coming out of Pine-Oaklen BioSynthetic Foundation Laboratory, and the possible need for a friend that Hati could relate to. Sarah Pine secretly nudged the staff to produce one with similar features as that of the altered Fenrir clone, in hopes her son would have a friend who could help his troubled mental state. So DNA from princess Neera, was combined with one of those being grown in one of the most recent batches of individuals being artificially birthed.

In YE 41, Araena finished her accelerated learning program that all clones go through, giving her the intelligence to fit with her maturely developed body. Grown and taught to be a full adult, when asked what she wish to do, she elected for further education through classes at the local university. With ambitions to choose a career to better help others, she also looked forward to meeting Hati, who she had heard extensively about.

Skills Learned
