Personality

Usually he keeps very quiet, Rorik usually only speaks when spoken too, but will openly speak when he feels the need important enough. Having earned the nickname “Whisper” from this particular behavior. He has always been one to act on his instincts, being a man of actions more than words. Rorik has never been one to be struck by indecision. He is very observant and has a kind heart which he keeps hidden, but never hesitates to jump to the aid of another, especially when those who are innocent are in danger. Rorik also has a strong sense of right and wrong, and is appalled by slaughter in any form.

History

Born on Planet Osman in YE 14 at a frontier settlement where bandit activity was high. Rorik was from a family of salvagers and part time farmers. One day a local bandit faction showed up trying to extort protection payments from the people living there in the settlement. After being refused, the group returned in greater number and razed the settlement, killing everyone. Rorik was thought the only other known survivor other then his younger brother, and has been deeply scarred both physically and mentally because of this. In the years following he searched for any work available. Some of which was a hired guns as an armed escort.
