Physical Characteristics

Height: 2 meters (6.5 feet) Mass: 165 pounds Measurements: n/a Bra Size:

Build and Skin Colour: Thin and Lean: Prv. Gisgard still remains in pretty great shape even after his old racing days, even though his parents thoroughly discouraged him from even picking up a bike again after his wreck.

Facial Features and Eye Colour: He has a sharp chiseled face, quite reminding you of the old pictures of German propaganda. Given the right atmosphere, Gisgard looks like he could be quite demanding...now only if he acted like that.

Hair Colour and Style: Short blonde, slightly spiked up front

Distinguishing Features: His airbike accident left the private with a couple of scars, but the worst part came from when the bike pinned his left arm. With it severed, the doctors replaced everything below his shoulder with a bionic limb...It's been 2 years but he still hasn't quite made it as fast as his own.

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: "The report says he looks like he could rip those other recruits to pieces," said Lt. Janus from the other side of her desk, looking at her two subordinates with more than a little concern. "So why is he such a wimp?"

Gisgard can ace nearly any assignment in front of him, but in physical altercations, he lacks quite a bit of "experience"...and his rich family didn't help matters much.

Likes: Parties, esp. the ones his father put together Dislikes: None yet Goals: To follow in his father's footsteps, a diplomatic representative...maybe even more!!

History

Family: Parents: Sir. Arthur Gisgard (Planetary House Chairman) Mrs. Lydia Gisgard (Housewife)

Only child.

PRE RP: Albert was the brightest star in Sir. Arthur Gisgard's eye, though he never let the boy see it. Not that he got many chances to see his son, but when he did, he left some great lasting impressions. Sir. Gisgard was way too busy to have a child, but he wasn't about to let it show when he was able to visit his son.

Lydia raised her son, there was no doubt about that. He was kind, generous, and deeply ambitious to a fault...too bad she never could act on her's, but she knows he will...and by god he will be great at it.

At thirteen, Albert couldn't wait to drive, he got an airbike as a present from his father...and took off. They couldn't find him for a good week. After that, Albert was told he needed a little discipline and was sent for karate lessons. He soon found out those two things went hand-in-hand. His training gave him sharper reflexes and when he turned Seventeen, that accident could have been a hundred times worse.

He quickly recovered and regained about 90% mobility in his left "Bionic" arm, but his parents had enough. They suspended him from any of the things he used to do, and being a spiteful teenager, he joined the Marines.

Military Report

Communication

Private Albert Gisgard is familiar with basic radio operation and procedures and can make transmissions to and receive transmissions from other characters through headsets, ships, ground vehicles, power armor, and shuttles in both combat and non-combat conditions. Private Gisgard is fluent in Trade and Yamataian. He can speak and write it correctly and efficiently and can write reports, fill forms, issue orders under fire, etc. Gisgard is skilled in field communications and is proficient in all rudimentary forms of communication (hand signals, flashing lights, etc).

Fighting and Physical

Private Albert Gisgard excelled at intensive hand-to-hand combat training (primarily focused on disabling and/or killing opponents) and has followed up that knowledge with a rigorous training program. Weapons he is trained in include pistols of all types, knives, grenades (and other forms of explosive weaponry) and he seems to have especially high accuracy with rifles. He can repair any basic weaponry with adequate tools and time. The Private is in excellent physical shape and has considerable endurance due to his background in Savate Martial Arts. Gisgard is also able to pilot land-based power armors, but must rely on the suit's A.I. to do anything advanced.

Survival

Private Gisgard knows how to survive in hostile environments. He can build primitive shelters, hunt and forage for food, build a fire, etc. He can camouflage himself and is familiar with guerrilla warfare tactics.

Strategy (Tactics/discipline)

Private Albert Gisgard excels at giving out tactical commands and working with his troop to follow those commands efficiently. He knows the importance of teamwork on the battlefield, has been intensively trained in discipline and morale, and is able to recognize the command structure even while under extreme pressure (combat, etc). He is able to recognize multiple ambush points. Gisgard knows basic math in order to calculate distances, etc, and can use a tactical map.

Vehicles (land vehicles)

Private Gisgard is familiar with how to effectively pilot most ground vehicles. He can make rudimentary repairs to his vehicle. In addition, Gisgard has one vehicle type (Airbikes) in which he is particularly skilled at operating. While inside an airbike, he seems to be able to perform difficult maneuvers under high stress (combat, etc). Private Gisgard is also proficient in repairing this type of vehicle if given the proper tools and time.

Skills

Knowledge

Having been raised much of his life by Tutors and Diplomats, Gisgard found it very hard not to notice the intricacies of both foreign/domestic relations. He also found it very easy to sneak into his father's things and sneak quite a few good looks at law books and new bills being introduced to the Senate. Although, Ethan wasn't about to let his father know that he was interested in those boring topics, nor was Ethan's father going to tell him as he slowly closed the door he used to peek on his son

Humanities

Twelve years of private schooling leaves most people yearning for life on the outside, Gisgard was no exception to this basic fact of life, but he did learn. Gisgard was brought up to date on all the current events, past philosophies, and everything in between (though he did find one class "Aethersperm: Are the gods calling the apocalypse" amusing and very informative.) He agrees with most of the new rulings of the government, especially against slave trade.
