Kess in Roleplay

Mimi appears to be in a perpetual state of glee. She is a Savtech JANE whose sole purpose was to assist in the development and programs aboard the Nepleslian Arms and Munitions “Cirrus” Class Research Station.

She is, in many ways, the complete opposite of her counterpart Savtech, Kess. She is very bright, cheerful and always willing to help. She also appears to be naive and extremely passive-aggressive, preferring that everybody get along. She has a bad habit of always calling people by their first names, no matter what rank they hold aboard the station, although she does add proper titles and monikers.
