Purina in Roleplay

Professor Purina Popjoy, the Administrator of the Biological laboratories of the Cirrus Station, appears to be a very attractive young woman who cares for her animal and plant subjects as if they were pets.

In Episode 2: Little Problems, Purina assisted Squad 35 with the recapturing of a newly-discovered species of colossal spider-like swamp striders (known of Muck Shamblers), and has since then become indebted to the CSS squad, as well as developed a professional friendship with them.
