Aayliah works hard and respects the chain of command, she demands excellence from people under her and preforms at top of her skill level when under the command of others.She is cold and calculating while she works and even off duty is quite cold and not really very interactive, unless people have sparked an interested in her or she knows the person on a more personal level.

History and Relationship Notes

Aayliah had been part of the Star Army Fourth Fleet for most of her career and she enjoyed it, she did experience some other ships and had always tried to prove she she was a good as any Neko that was there. As she enjoyed being a soldier and worked hard, she enjoyed the clarity and focus that came from a firefight for her. While on shore leave she saw a new ship looking for crew and saw they were open to any species, she applied for a transfer and it went through and she became part of the crew of and headed off to the docks of the new ship.
