Family (or Creators)

Ketsurui Zaibatsu.

Pre-RP

YE29: Aikiko, started out as a Nekovalkyrja NH series, was taken from the Ketsurui Zaibatsu Corporation, after one of the Management was caught in a compromised position where Honor and Loyalty to the Yamataian Government would've been fatal to the person if the word of his actions gotten out, where they made NH Series Nekovalkyrja and took her out into the UOC to be sold on the Black-market. Where she was awoken to be an indentured worker in one of the ore mining operations due to her unique skill in Demolitions. YE30.8: After several a year of working, she paid off the dept she supposed to have accrued with the mining consortium. She began her search for the Black Market Ring that took her from her predestined life as part of the SAoY. She had very little money, just enough to live, joined the UOC Peacekeepers to gain more resources to continue her search and bring the culprits to justice. With her expertise with explosive, became an EOD Specialist. While serving with the UOC PF, she gained more experience, knowledge about bombs and explosive devices. She saved money when ever she could to accumulate money to pay her way to back Yamata to track down the the Black-market Crime Organization. Her ship, Blue Flower, she was assigned to finally got scraped as the damages finally grounded the ship. YE36: She joined up Star Army to broaden her horizons and upgraded to NH-33 model, keeping her personality/soul intact as part of the Enlistment Contract. With her para-military skills, Aikiko was a step ahead of other recruits in training as she knew about teamwork, knowledge on firearms, and with her tech background, She would be ideal for starship Tech, Infantry and EOD YE36.0 - YE36.6: Aikiko is currently at Fort Minori waiting for assignment.
