History

Family (or Creators)

Ketsurui Zaibatsu

Pre-RP

Created in Kyoto by the Ketsurui Zaibatsu, Ida Yoshimi was trained to be infantry like so many before her. Through her training, she did find herself bullied by some of the neko's in her group for seeming incompetent in simulations. She bottled up her frustrations and eventually began using the combat simulations as an outlet, excelling in brutality but was criticized for her lack of technique. The bullying eventually died down but she had already fallen in love with being in combat.

When the time came for her to chose an assignment, she choose to join the Takamagahara after hearing it was crewed mainly by other mini-nekos.

YSS Takamagahara

Yoshimi served a short stint on the YSS Takamagahara during it's operation in the Yugumo cluster. She assisted repelling any boarders that manage to breach the hull of the ship during a surprise ambush by NMX forces. Afterwards, she gained a newfound ~~respect~~ hatred for Truly Venus and her band, but mainly

Venus.

YSS Sakura II

Yoshimi served aboard the YSS Sakura II Plot and assisted with the reconnoitering and extraction of several aliens in cryosleep aboard a derelict unknown dreadnought. Earned an Exploration Award and Service Award and was promoted to the rank of Jôtô Hei.

Skills

Communications

Yoshimi is trained to speak and write in both Yamataigo (邪馬台語) and Trade (language). Though her handwriting has a habit of turning into scribbles after a bit of writing. May include cutesy little hearts in her writing.

Fighting

Yoshimi is very, very proficient at killing things. Though she lacks grace, she makes up for it in raw savagery and brutality. Her melee focuses on grappling and disabling in the most painful way. Her pistol practice usually for the heart or where to inflict the most damage. In short, she focuses a lot on dealing lots of pain towards her enemies.

Technology Operation

She can operate the Kessaku OS and search for files but that's about it.

Mathematics

Yoshimi can do just the basics, really. Mainly able to do everything under basic algebra.

Physical

Every morning, she wakes with a basic routine of sit ups, push ups, and jumping jacks. Usually when there's downtime in her schedule, she'll randomly break into this routine in her cabin to pass the time till someone says something.

Humanities

Literally none. She frowns upon pacifism, feels insulted when people try to apply psychology on her, and and is angered by diplomacy.

Biology

Yoshimi studied a lot of biology and xenology during her training. She knows and has memorized the pressure points and critical locations to shot on several of the major species she's slated to meet across her tours of duty.
