Physical Description

Jonnex is 6'2", muscled, pale skinned, coal black eyed and golden haired, styled in a buzzcut. He sports a traditional Yamataian beard and mustache, wears light cologne and speaks with a gruff voice and demeanor. While he wears suits in business environments, Jonnex wears casual clothes whenever possible - he is retired after all.

Personality

Jonnex is a ruthless, borderline psychopathic individual. His only goal in life is to create a dynasty that would last for many years, providing all his family needs. He is incredibly diligent and hard-working when he needs to be but since his company's success he's delegated all his work to the rest of his family. He has a habit of playing with cigars as he smokes them, making them last an incredibly long time. He is quick to anger and holds his fury for a long, long time. He's just the right balance of bold and cautious to build something from nothing. Most if not all of his relationships are unsteady, being less able than most to empathise with people.

History

Iemochi Jonnex was born in YE 01 in the city of Kyoto, Yamatai. Originally working as an engineer making electrics in a factory, he used corporate espionage to sell patents and production blueprints to rival companies. From this, he earned enough to stockpile secrets, even buying out other spies to give him their intel.

Eventually Jonnex has accumulated such a stockpile of blueprints that were gathering dust, he decided to use some of his sizeable wealth to purchase his own company. Employing his network and other ruthless techniques, Iemochi Innovations & Sales soared through the ranks, always coming on top of the competition.

The company became one of the principle contractors for the Star Army of Yamatai, making sure their corner of the market was well and truly locked down. After such great success, Jonnex took an early retirement to do whatever the hell he liked and left the company in the hands of his children.

After retiring from being active in IIS, he co-founded Nexus Private Security, nefarious foundation for shadowy purposes.
