Kail in Roleplay

Kail was a PC created by Kai and is currently an NPC involved in the Frontier Skies plot.

Physical Characteristics

Height: 5'6 Mass: 130 Measurements: 34/29/31 Bra Size: 31C

Build and Skin Color: Kail has a just less than average build, and slightly pale skin.

Facial Features and Eye Color: She has a fairly rounded face, a small nose, and some freckles across the bridge of her nose onto her cheeks. Her eyes are a dark, vibrant blue.

Hair Color and Style: Kail has dark blue hair that is kept relatively short. Her bangs cover much of her face, often covering one or both her eyes down to about her nose. There are two very long strands on either side, framing her face. Her hair is cut so that from these strands the sides and back angle up where they are eventually cut to about an inch long at the back of her head.

Distinguishing Features: Along with her freckles, there are some scars that she decided to leave as a sign of toughness.

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Kail is a somewhat harsh woman. She can at times act tomboyish, and is more than willing to intimidate others if need be. She has a strong sense of duty and loyalty to her units, and will act very professionally when on duty. Kail Suffers from Bi-polar disorder, though she can usually hide it.

Likes: Miso soup, fish, hanging out with her friends, and teaching people. Dislikes: People who don't listen, Mishhu and extra spicy foods. Goals: To teach the younger generations of her sisters how to survive.

History

Pre-RP

Kail had a Normal history for a Nekoalkyrja, serving for 5 years on various ships as a power armor pilot. after a while, she was given the choice of either continuing her service as normal, or becoming an instructor, as her affinity for teaching had started to become noticed. She was transferred to Fort Ready and serves as a Power Armor instructor at the base. During the battle of Nataria, she was assaulted by a group of Mishhu, and nearly killed. as she struggled to get into a PA and fight them off, she was rescued by a team of recruits fresh from the exercise they had been at. To show she was tough and a survivor, she had the scars caused by the encounter preserved rather than healed over.

After several tours of duty as an instructor, and with the advent of the second Mishhu war, Kail volunteered to help fight, by getting herself assigned to the YSS Illustrious as a combat pilot. Before shipping off, she spent many hours flying fighter simulators, but her years of power armor combat have slowed her progress in learning to pilot starfighters. While still a learner, she is however decent, and was capable of holding her own against the Simulator's computer.

Service Record

Fort ready

Instructor

YSS Takemitsu

The YSS Takemitsu Barely escaped the Destruction of the Nataria Fleet Depot, but was badly damaged in the process. Calling for aid, a distorted message managed to reach the YSS Senbu, an Anri-class repair vessel. Once attached to the ship for repairs, the two were set upon by a pirate vessel, which launched PA's to attack. Both ships sent out very few Power Armors, due to sensor distortions, and a skirmish ensued, comprising of a ragtag group from the Senbu's pride wing and a few Fort Ready recruits. Joining the Fray a little late, Kail Attempted to bring order to the situation, but when a damaged recruit ignored a direct order and followed an enemy PA into an Irim Hulk, Kail followed to get the recruit before she could be harmed. The recruit stumbled upon a trap and fled, revealing her damaged backside to the explosion. Selflessly, Kail put herself in harm's way to keep the recruit from dying. As the Irim exploded around the two, Kail did in fact protect the recruit, at the cost of her arms and legs. After the fact, She was able to recover rather quickly by the use of a Hemosynth tank aboard the Senbu. She still holds a grudge against that recruit, however.

Fort Ready II

After the destruction of the fleet depot at Nataria, the SATA decided that it would be better to place training forts within the KMS, and moved the fort and all its resources to Fort Ready II on UX-13. Kail is getting ready to start off a new round of classes, having been finally Promoted and put in charge of the entire Powered Armor section of Fort Ready.

YSS Illustrious

After growing tired of an instructor's life, and getting the urge to actually fight again, Kail Tarrim took temporary assignment on the YSS Illustrious as it was delivered to its assigned squadrons, taking control of the giant warship's Onyx Squadron during the trip. In transit, the Illustrious and its battlegroup came under attack by Mishhu forces, and Onyx was deployed to act as a fighter screen against battlepods, allowing the ships to concentrate their fire on enemy ships. The Illustrious brought the battle to a quick close, and Onyx returned with no losses. After the Illustrious reached Yamatai, Kail was temporarily stationed there until new orders and a new assignment could arrive for her.

Fighting Diamonds

After serving a short waiting period on Yamatai, Kail was assigned to the 2xf's 21st fighter squadron 'The fighting diamonds'. She served as a primarily backup role in a number of battles, in which she fought extensively, but overall the unit seemed to lack something that the old Neko had been looking for but unable to find. Secretly, she began wallowing in Depression on her off hours, and decided to request a transfer to an irregular unit, hoping to find something to give more meaning to her life than being another cog in the machine of war.

YSS Genesis

Kail's YE 36 assignment was one to an experimental ship, the YSS Genesis, on which she was in charge of the small fighter compliment. The Ship's history was mostly uneventful, as it was primarily used in joint testing with Origin Industries, who had built the ship, and the Star army. After several less than notable years of service, the YSS Genesis was lost in an at the time unknown attack and foundered in an Asteroid field, and abandoned. Kail's role in the abandonment of the stricken ship was to guide others to the escape pods and shuttles, ultimately flying the last shuttle from the ship. The Genesis would later be salvaged, though it has not gone back into service, and such the crew was made to find new assignments.

The Kuvexian War and beyond

During the Kuvexian war, Kail returned to the 2XF, fighting in several battles, and making her skills known, first as a trusted wingman, then as a flight leader, and eventually becoming the second in command of a fighter squadron. After YE 41, Kail went to Officer Training school, and commissioned. She continued to participate in the war, fighting all the way up to the battle of Battle Of Glimmergold. Once the Kuvexian war ended, Kail continued to fly, and continued to lead, and became a Chusa in YE 45, and was put in charge of the 58th Squadron - Hustlin' Harpies

Skills

Kail Tarrim possess all the Star Army Common skills. She also possesses leadership experience and abilities, and spent several years as an instructor. She has spent the majority of her career as a Star Army Pilot and has all the related Skills. Her early Career was that of a power armor pilot and as such has Infantry skills as well.
