General Information

Parents: Tsukade Shun (Father), Tsukade Miwa (Mother)

Personality

The form of Eilae’s body would usually suggest that she’d be flirtatious, kind, or even “bitchy.” However, that isn’t the case. She usually prefers to keep to herself, and obeys commands with no audible questioning. In public she’s often shy, but not at all submissive. Anything new always draws her curiosity, even if she doesn’t show it. More of an intellectual than a brainless soldier, she prefers to simply do her jobs and then reflect on things by herself. Calm and calculating, Eilae rarely panics in any situation. Even if she’s nervous, panicked, or worried she usually does a good job of hiding it from her superiors and/or comrades. However, she doesn’t have a completely unshakable personality. Personal questions and social environments scare her immensely, causing her to become nervous.

History

As a young child, Tsukade Eilae was very energetic and talkative. She never really tended to get along with other children, being that she was too domineering and always preferred to get her way. She lived on Yamatai, in the city of Yumiuki. Even though she had very few friends, she wasn’t too upset since she always had her compassionate and kind father. Shun, whenever he was on leave, would always take his young daughter out on camping trips in the lush jrainforests that dotted Yamatai’s surface. Eilae absolutely loved her home and grew up caring deeply for the ecosystem.

Eilae never liked her mother much and could never understand why her father had chosen Miwa to be his wife. Tsukade Miwa was basically a whore. Her mother had long blond hair and a very voluptuous form, yet that's all she had. Miwa always wanted her father to buy her things and never could appreciate his attempts to make her happy. Though it wasn't spoken about, Eilae suspected her mother to be having affairs with other men when her father wasn't around. Her mother also couldn't be bothered with raising her child, so her father was usually tasked with everything. Despite the lack of attention from her mother, Eilae was a generally happy girl, always looking forward for when her father would come home to visit.

When Eilae reached the age of 13, she and her mother received the news of Tsukade Shun's death. He had died unfortunately to a disease he had acquired on duty. Eilae was completely devastated and went into a period of withdrawal for months. Her mother, Miwa, seemed entirely unfazed by the death of her man, but did show a small amount of compassion towards her young daughter by actually attempting to keep their home clean and Eilae fed. Finally Eilae managed to recover, yet never completely. Her mother found another man to take up the mantle of father 2 years later. Because of this Eilae began to hate her mother.

Eventually, in an attempt to "clean" herself of her mother's taint, she applied to have her body transferred into that of a Yamataian. She did keep the majority of her natural looks, except for deepening the eye color of her eyes and turning her hair to a more golden hair color. At 18 she left her cursed home to join the Star Army of Yamatai.

Skills

Physical

Despite the normal training she received when joining the army, she spent a lot of time training herself in swimming, acrobatics, and running. Most of her earlier training when she had her old Geshrin body was wasted when she switched to the Yamataian, yet her enthusiasm for making herself better still lasted.

Communication

Eilae is familiar with basic radio operation and procedures and can make transmissions to and receive transmissions from other characters through headsets, starships, power armor, and shuttles in both combat and non-combat conditions. She is fluent in English and Japanese. She can speak and write both correctly and efficiently and can write reports, fill forms, issue orders under fire, etc.

Fighting

Eilae received hand-to-hand combat training, followed up with a rigorous training program. She is skilled and experienced in combat both in Yamatai-like conditions and in zero-gravity, with and without weapons. Weapons she is trained in include energy pistols, knives, power armor, grenades, energy rifles, and swords.

Mathematics

Eilae received basic mathematics training, to including up to algebra and trigonometry.

Arts and Vocations

Eilae, having few friends and an uncaring mother had to figure out a way to spend her time before her father was allowed home. She took an interest in drawing, sculpting whole landscaped upon pieces of paper. Over the years of her young life, Eilae's skill grew more and more, until she was actually able to capture her father's likeness on sheet.

Strategy (Military and Survival

Eilae, having little social skills, occasionally passes the time by playing strategy simulations. She's also received basic courses in strategy concerning military affairs.

Technology Operation

Serizawa is quite adapt to operating various technologies he might come across. Naturally, he is competant with using the Kessaku OS and is somewhat experienced in dealing with MEGAMI programs. He has a natural grasp over technology and even when presented with a new device, he can familiarize himself with its operation in a relatively short amount of time.
