

EM-W4 Stun Baton

Emrys Industries

A Tamahagane Company

The Emrys Industries Stun Baton is tool for law enforcement personnel, it became available in YE 34.

About the Stun Baton

The EM-W4 is a multifunction baton that in addition to normal uses has a low level scalar pulse to stun targets. It is made of Durandium Alloy. It has a chargeable power cell, and has a simple on off copper switch. The baton power cell has enough power for 10 charges. The EM-W4 is available in two models a straight and a side baton.

Usage

The purpose of the stun is to disorient and impair the targets ability to resist. There are twelve small bands on the end of the baton that are the discharge points. The charge only comes out of the discharge point when it is struck against a person. The charge is low enough that a single hit will impair the target's motor functions. A target would have to be hit 3-4 times depending on body mass and physiology to be rendered unconscious.
