About the EM-G9 Series flashlight

The EM-G9 series flashlight is a rechargeable flashlight, with a swiveling head. Some kits come with different lamp assemblies to change the type of light it produces. The batteries recharge by induction, and come with a recharging pad. It has a two position switch on the top. The EM-G9 is watertight to 30 meters, and there are three small recessed electrical connections in the rounded end of the flashlight. The sealed lamp assembly swivels 90° forward / 60° backward. The flashlight is constructed out of Durandium Alloy for durability.
