

Mining Guild

The Mining Guild is a business based primarily in the New Dusk Conclave Formed in YE 41, that deals exclusively with mining and everything to do with that profession. In order to honor the New Dusk Conclave originally, the Mining Guild had the New Dusk Conclave as part of its name, but while it does have locations on the capital world of Sirris VI it is not controlled by the government

About Mining Guild

The Mining Guild was created to fill a need that the New Dusk Conclave would soon find itself needing, in order to produce the metallic materials for the shipyards to produce ships, for their vehicles, and various other items of metal, and for the Jewelry stores to create their Jewelry from the gems that were mined. By creating the Guild and creating their own mines, they cut the cost of imports from the other Governments that neighbored the NDC.

Formed in YE 41, after Nyx Pine's activation, and her seeking out a means to help her father and uncle's government, the Gynoid Princess encountered twins Astrid and Aeta Kurosaki.

Their encounter with Nyx Pine filled an important need, namely the backing of the royal family, or at least one of them. With Nyx at their back, they began forming the Mining Guild, gathering the personnel chosen from the willing and able, from Refugees as they had been to to additional other Personnel, such as Yamatai expats alike, including a robot workforce.

Nyx and Aeta came up with ideas in order to help them like the Mineral scanner, in order to detect the specific minerals which made the work much easier. They also made an agreement, that if they found a deposit that measured up to a typical home, they could individually keep it, but anything bigger than that was for The New Dusk Conclave to use as they wished, and they had to make sure that they were finding deposits for the New Dusk Conclave.

"From dusk we'll dig, for inside every world is the sun of a new dawn."

Headquarters

The Main Headquarters is a large building in the downtown Obsidian City, close to the middle of the City itself. The Headquarters holds the offices of the CEO, COO as well as Nyx's office, which is mainly used as the office of the Royal Representative while Nyx is elsewhere. These are on the 4th floor while the 2 below the third was classroom-style rooms for new employee training to prepare themselves for the work they were about to undergo. The Third floor is a sort of recreation type break room for the employee, which were the Kurosaki twins, and the receptionists and teachers, as well as those Employees who happen to be there.

The receptionists sit at the front on the first floor, registering new Employees, greeting them, and so on.

Astrid can be found in the top offices, while her sister Aeta can be found in the Mines. Both make sure things are running smoothly.

Facilities

The Facilities of the Mining Guild are largely the mines themselves, but there are locations near the entrance and random tunnels that have bathroom facilities, as well as a mess hall filled with food and water for the Miners to consume as well as places to purchase drinks for later use.

Some facilities are the Refineries to process their ore to metals and their gem ore to gems, and they have Water Tankers for their water concerns the ones in-charge are listed among Mining Operations

Products

The Mining Guild produces a vast quantity of refined metals and gemstones for a variety of future creations, whether that be Starships, buildings for cities, or vehicles. But this production isn't quite limited to those, thanks to a periodical partnership with the Department of Engineering, they can also produce technology for their own use, and for the rest of the New Dusk Conclave.

Deals and Treaty

The Mining Guild is a corporation that began in the New Dusk Conclave since then it has begun to create Mines for their Miners to work in and make money for the production but also Partners, Partnering up with organizations to make more money.

Currently, the Partners are below

- The Mining Guild has come to the Department Of Engineering \(D.O.E.\) for their technology needs, of course, it has helped that the tech came from the metal that the Guild has mined.
- The guild also has a partner in Black Wing Enterprises who sells their technology as well as additional items.

Potential Partners

- so far the Mining Guild has only purchased items they need from the Galactic Horizon, but considering that both corps were created on worlds of the New Dusk conclave and their predecessors, The Mining Guild is hoping to partner up some time with them too.
