

Kitsou (Death Stick)

The Kitsou is a weapon used by members of the Poku Saeruo Degonjo who use the Bakyu-daho'te \(Silent Fighting\) style. It comes in two styles.

Only used by members of the Tavi Fua Jael \(Blood Tooth Sect\).

Standard

The standard kitsou is a .6 meters long rod, made of Mâqitua \(Light Metal\), covered with dense polymers. Swung with sufficient force it can effectively crush a windpipe, break bones, damage the spine. This is an uncommon weapon and not usually worn in public.

Dual

The dual is a set of two kitsou that are modified so they can be used individually, connected end to end to extend range and damage. They are also made so that when not in use they fit together side by side for storage. This is done by connecting them at 90 degrees and then twisting until they lock.

Damage Capacity

See Damage Rating \(Version 3\) for an explanation of the damage system.
