Formed in YE 28, the Nepleslian Star Navy (NSN) was created to defend Nepleslia's interstellar interests. In those days, it fell under the umbrella of the old Star Army of Nepleslia\(SAoN\). The Star Navy was also much smaller in those days and relied on a hodge-podge assortment of warships. For example, in the Kennewes Offensive, the majority of Nepleslia's naval assets were deployed against the entirety of the Reds' military force.

Today, the NSN is a much larger, better organized combat force than in those heady days of its inception. It is now comprised of four fleets and uses only Nepleslian-made warships. Each Fleet is led by a Grand Admiral who report directly to the Sky Marshal. The Navy has participated in every military conflict that Nepleslia has been in. The NSN contains Nepleslia's military starships and works closely with the Nepleslian Space Marine Corps.

The NSN also provides feedback to NAM for current designs and helps them come up with new ones.

The current commander of the Nepleslian Star Navy is Sky Marshal Gaelan Sanders.
