

Love And Wrestling

Koga Akemi Presents: Love And Wrestling (LAW) is a multimedia franchise created by Koga Akemi in YE 39. The focus is on Professional Wrestling, specifically resembling Joshi. Sales of merchandise, such as clothing and music, or special ticket packages featuring VIP interaction with the performers is emphasized. The shows themselves last for several hours, while related events like signings and local appearances take place all day, and can sometimes stretch throughout the week.

The official Love And Wrestling theme song is "Senshuken Ni Nare" by Venus and the Avatars.

Season One: YE 39

The first season consisted of six episodes filmed and broadcast live every other month during YE 39. The first two episodes were filmed on Akemi's Stations, before somewhat larger, more populated venues on Planet Nepleslia became available. A special free outdoor event was even held at a beach on Planet Osman as a treat for the local populace. This season revolved around the quest to become the inaugural Yama-Titanweight Champion, culminating in a title match in the main event of the year's final show.

Season Two: YE 40

The second season was filmed across YE 40. After working out the kinks in the original idea and proving its merits, Akemi Koga was able to book larger, higher quality venues. The first episode would be held at Kawaridane Sports Stadium in Tsubomi's Ward 4 on Yamatai \(Planet\) itself. The use of the much larger venue was possible due to a broadcasting deal with Terebi Network Broadcasting (TNB), a media corporation based on Yamatai.

- Episode 2: "Sakura Struggle"
- Episode 3: "ALL OUT"

Notable Performers

While a few veteran wrestlers appeared in season one, the roster was frequently filled out with local competitors that only made a single appearance. With the extra finances and attention available in
