History and Background

The Kotoku System was first discovered, explored, and mapped by the Fifth Expeditionary Fleet in YE 29 with the rest of the Yugumo Cluster. Like most systems in the region, it became part of the United Outer Colonies in YE 30 until that failed nation's fall in YE 32 when it was captured by the Sfrarabla

Mishhuvurthyar Xhrafuklurp (SMX) and the NMX . The system actually saw very little development over the years; with sparse colonies, resupply ports, and mining facilities. In YE 34, at the end of the Second Mishhuvurthyar War it was returned to the Yamatai Star Empire.

It was briefly colonized by the Lorath Matriarchy in YE 34, switching hands yet again, and became the home of a strange shortlived cult under someone named Glynvalur Starhearth. The cult along with the Lorath Matriarchy disappeared during Project Checkout in YE 39 when it again was returned to the Yamatai Star Empire.

In YE 43, when the Motoyoshi Clan and Yugumo Corporation brought settlers back to the system when they established a new settlement on Kotoku I.

The Kotoku System

Information on the Kotoku System is transmitted by a Yomawari-Class NavComm Buoy placed in YE 44 as follows:

Presence of the Star Army

The First Expeditionary Fleet of the  Star Army of Yamatai patrols this system.

Stars

A glistening ball of incandescent gas in the dark night of space.

Kotoku I

Kotoku I is an inhabitable  terrestrial planet with a cool and temperate climate, that has the abandoned structures of a former Lorath Matriarchy colony on the surface. The planet is currently the home to a group of 30,000 workers from the Yugumo Corporation that are part of a project planning a future colony there.

Kotoku II

Kotoku II is a rocky  terrestrial planet with a thin unbreathable atmosphere. The planet has several abandoned mining facilities that belong to the former United Outer Colonies and the Lorath Matriarchy. The planet has notable planetary rings.

Kotoku III

Kotoku III is another rather unremarkable rocky  terrestrial planet. The planet has several abandoned mining facilities that belong to the former United Outer Colonies and the Lorath Matriarchy.

Kotoku IV

Kotoku IV is yet another rather unremarkable rocky  terrestrial planet. The planet has several abandoned mining facilities that belong to the former United Outer Colonies and the Lorath Matriarchy.

Kotoku Belt

The Kotoku Belt is a sprawling outer system belt of asteroids. 🪄 iron, 🪄 nickel, 🪄 iridium, 🪄 palladium, 🪄 gold, 🪄 magnesium, 🪄 osmium, 🪄 ruthenium, 🪄 rhodium, and 🪄 platinum can all be found in plentiful quantities within this field. It currently is unmined but is controlled by the Yugumo Corporation which has a lease program to other Corporations and individuals.

People

The Kotoku System is inhabited by 30,000 friendly Yamataian workers from the Yugumo Corporation.
