Yuujou means “Friendship” in Yamataigo (邪馬台語).

History and Background

The Yuujou System was first mapped and explored by the Fifth Expeditionary Fleet in YE 29 and was claimed under the flag of the Yamatai Star Empire that same year. Like most systems in the Yugumo Cluster it became part of the short-lived and failed nation of the United Outer Colonies. When the United Outer Colonies fell to the Mishhuvurthyar in YE 32 it would be returned to the Yamatai Star Empire only to then briefly change hands again to the Lorath Matriarchy in YE 36, but would then return to the control of the Yamatai Star Empire in YE 39 following Project Checkout.

The Yuujou System has never been colonized, however, in YE 44 the Yugumo Corporation has earmarked the system for resource extraction projects.

The Yuujou System

Information on the Yuujou System is transmitted by a Yomawari-Class NavComm Buoy placed in YE 44 as follows:

Yuujou Star System Summary

Presence of the Star Army

The First Expeditionary Fleet of the  Star Army of Yamatai patrols this system.

Star

A glistening ball of incandescent gas in the dark night of space.

Yuujou I

An untouched  Terrestrial Desert world that is a new frontier ready for exploration or prospecting.

Satellites around Yuujou I:

- Yuujou I has several  C-Type Asteroids and  B-Type Asteroids orbiting it.

Yuujou II

An untouched  Terrestrial Desert world that is a new frontier ready for exploration or prospecting.

Haigusuri

A rocky  Terrestrial Planet with no atmosphere with a dull grey appearance. This world has a complex underground cave system that was formed thousands of years ago suggesting the planet once had an atmosphere and a hydrosphere.

Shuin

Shuin is a massive  Gas Giant a beautiful purple and white swirling gem of hydrogen, helium, methane, and Xenon gases amongst a system of dull grey or brown desert planets.

Satellites around Shuin:

- Sanki - A brown mountainous inhabitable moon with a breathable atmosphere.

- Ashige - A dark grey moon composed of carbon and silicon materials. Has no atmosphere.
- Kuruji - A habitable grey moon composed of iron, silicon, magnesium, calcium, and aluminum.
- Nyuuhakushoku - A habitable icy white and blue moon with a very active hydrosphere consisting of water and water ice.
- Kassourui - A small desert moon with an unbreathable atmosphere.
- Amalana - A dull grey moon composed of carbon and silicon materials. Has no atmosphere.

Souten

Souten is the largest of the Yuujou System 🌌 Gas Giants. A ringed white and blue world composed of hydrogen, helium, and methane orbited by 5 moons.

Satellites around Souten:

- Souten II - A habitable grey moon composed of iron, silicon, magnesium, calcium, and aluminum.
- Souten III - A dull grey moon composed of carbon and silicon materials. Has no atmosphere.
- Watase - A habitable icy white and blue moon with a very active hydrosphere consisting of water and water ice.
- Mihara - A brown mountainous inhabitable moon with a breathable atmosphere.
- Saito Mavena - A dull grey moon composed of carbon and silicon materials. Has no atmosphere.

People

The system is uninhabited.

Transportation

Currently there is no PAINT service to this system. Visitors must arrive by starship or similar spacecraft.

RP Opportunities

Some roleplaying opportunities in this system:

- Prospect a world for mining.
- Colonize one of the many inhabitable moons.

- Create a secret location.

Rumors

The rumors might be true, they might not:

- The First Expeditionary Fleet plans to build a secret base here.⁷⁾
- An ancient civilization once made Yuujou its home system, and artifacts from this civilization are hidden on its barren worlds.
