Plot History

Hanako Star gets invaded by the Interstellar Kingdom Of Kuvexia with overwhelming forces and defeat the combined forces of the Sixth Fleet and Tenth Standard Fleet. The Kuvexians landed their forces onto Hanako's World and started their overtake of the area piece by piece. As bravely as the Yamatai had fought in space, they fought with the same spirit on the surface. The resistance begins to shape at one location, an H Bunker with number 789. There the people find themselves in a chaotic state and wounded are brought in by the minute. Until Narita started to gather information about what was really going on and manage to get a few healthy soldiers, even a Caelisolan who was seen as an intruder and an alien-looking freedom fighter. Yet the team was put into action when the ships that fought so bravely in space were shot down. They split up and they arrive at YSS Yoshikiyo where they started to evacuate and give support fire to the wounded soldiers. There the resistance to the gifted and small Amatsukaze who has her hands in information warfare. With a brutal retreat, the team acknowledges that supplies were in dying need for their bunker and their next target would be the General Supplies depot in the south of New Kyoto.
