Third Battle Of Nataria Defense Medal

The Third Battle Of Nataria Defense Medal is a military award of the Star Army of Yamatai.

History

In YE 42, during the Kuvexian War, the Third Battle Of Nataria occurred as part of the Kuvexian Advance of YE 42. The battle pitted an almost even number of Kuvexian Military ships and Star Army ships against one another. Each side wanted to kill as many of the enemy as possible, and the Star Army was adamant that Nataria would not fall, so neither side retreated and they fought until less than 10% of each side remained. Additionally, Kuvexians managed to interfere with mental backups so that most Star Army soldiers lost in the battle could not be revived. Due to the severity and significance of this battle, Ketsurui Yui authorized as special medal for those who fought in it.

The majority of these medals were issued posthumously.
