

Ke-T10-W4300 Aether Burst Cannon

The Aether Burst Cannon is an Aether weapon designed for the Ke-T10 "Fukuro" Multi-Role Shuttle. It became available in YE 43.

History and Background

The Aether Burst Cannon was developed in conjunction with the Ke-T10 "Fukuro" Multi-Role Shuttle in early YE 43. The weapon was designed at Ketsurui Fleet Yards Starship System Testing Facility at Nemesis Bastion and was released into production after testing. While the cannon didn't change Star Army of Yamatai aether weapon technology it focused on the quality of components and improvement of aether plasma delivery in bursts.

Appearance

The Aether Burst Cannon is integrated into the bow of the Ke-T10 "Fukuro" Multi-Role Shuttle. The reinforced assembly sits raised above the floor when the shuttle has landed in a hangar for easy access for Star Army Technician giving service on the system. It is a “nozzle” apparatus on the bow of the shuttle.
